

Come and See, Go and Tell

Words and Music by ROBERT W. MUNCIE

D7 G A7

1. Two be - liev - ers came, one Sun - day morn, to see the Mas - ter's
 2. God knows we can't tell is the sto - ry 'til we know it in our
 3. Though the an - gel is not at the tomb, the call is still the tomb. Though morn - ing light was break - ing, their hearts were filled with heart: A per - son - al Liv - ing Sa - vior; then go out to pro - same. Come meet the

D7 G G/C

G G G7

gloom; But, an an - gel met them at the grave: "There is no cause to start; And, when we ac - cept the Sa - vior, when in our soul all is claim Je - sus is a - live, vic - to - rious o - ver sin and death and fear: Come see, then go and tell the world the Sa - vior is not here.

C D7 G D7 G

 well, We'll be com - pelled to share the news: we'll want to go and tell.
 hell And He in - vites you, "Come and see and then go out and tell.

© Copyright by 2005 Robert W. Muncie in "Songs of November, 2005" All Rights Reserved

Muncie Music 4545 Chapel Drive Columbus, IN 47203

robertwm@hsonline.net 812.375.9546

Chorus

C G D7 G D7

Come and see the tomb is emp - ty, the stone is rolled a - way. You can have the Ris - en Sa - vior liv - ing in your heart, to - day; Then, go tell the world you've met the Lord and He's a - live and well. Come and

G C G D7

G D7 G7 C

C D7 G G D7 G

1st Ending Optional 2nd Ending

see, Come and see, Go and tell. Go and tell. see, Come and see, Go and tell. Go and tell.