

Come, Lord Jesus

Words and Music by ROBERT W. MUNCIE

D7 G D7 G G7 C D7

1. We have worked for fame and for - tune, bet - ter jobs with high - er
2. All the goods this world can of - fer will not quench a thirst - ing
3. All - suf - fi - cient, Ev - er - pres - ent, Lord of heav'n and earth is

G G7 C D7 G A7

pay, We have longed for nic - er hous - es, bet - ter health a - long life's soul, Noth - ing else will keep you hap - py while the end - less ag - es
He, He who heals the blind, the crip - pled and with one word, calms the way, We've sought friends in high - er plac - es, bought big - ger toys with which to roll. For a life that is e - ter - nal, there's on - ly one place we can sea. He will reign through end - less ag - es, when this old world has ceased to play. All we real - ly need is Je - sus: seek Him while it is to - go: Je - sus Christ, God's Son, our Sa - vior. He's the One we need to be, And this Je - sus, King of Glo - ry, wants to live in you and

D7 G D7 G G7 C D7

G G7 C D7 G C G D7

Chorus

G G7 C D7 G D7 G

day. know. me. Come, Lord Je - sus, live with - in me! Ev' - ry - thing we'll ev - er need is all wrapped up in one great of - fer. Why should Je - sus have to plead? More than an - y - thing, we need Him: know - ing Him is where life

D7 G C A7

D7 G D7 G G7 C D7

G G7 C D7 G C G D7 G D7 G

starts. What an of - fer! What a bar - gain! Come, Lord Je - sus, come to live with - in my heart!