

He's on the Throne

Words and Music by ROBERT W. MUNCIE

E^b7 A^b E^b7 A^b E^b7 A^b

1. The jus - tice and the love of God cre - a - ted Cal - va -
2. Our sym - bol is high, an emp - ty cross: our Sa - vior is
3. With head held high, we face the world, though hard may be our

D^b E^b7 B^bm7 E^b7 B^bm7 E^b7

ry Where Je - sus suf - fered, bled and died for sin - ners just like there; For, He de - feat - ed will death and give hell place and to He's gone to pre - way: The night of sin will soon give place to nev - er - end - ing

A^b E^b7 A^b E^b7 A^b E^b7 A^b D^b me, And, at the time, it seemed God lost and sin and Sa - tan won; But, pare A place for us in Par - a - dise and we are not a - shamed To day; So we are not dis - cour - aged when these fleet - ing tri - als come: Our

E^b7 B^bm7 E^b7 B^bm7 E^b7 A^b

God raised Je - sus from the grave and now He's on the throne.
take our cross and the suf - fer loss for and Him, the King of kings.
Lord has won the vic - to - ry and He's bring - ing us home.

Refrain

He's on the throne, not on the cross. Yes, our Lord was cru - ci - fied: earth has known no great - er loss; But, His suf - fer - ing is in the past: He has paid sin's price -- it's done. He's not on the cross: He's on the throne.