

Let's Celebrate

Words and Music by ROBERT W. MUNCIE

D7

G

D7

G

D7

G

1. Let's all get on our feet: this is an up - beat sort of cel - e - bra - tion
2. We did - n't come a - round to do a put - down, but to cel - e - brate the
3. May - be you came in here all full of doubt and fear, for your life is such a song. I know the love of Je - sus in our hearts has been work - ing all day Christ. Tho' things may be bad, He can make us glad and turn ev - 'ry wrong to mess. You may have felt like stay - ing home in bed, think - ing you could use the

D7

G

D7

G

D7

G

D7

G

G7

long. We can - not sit still: we know the real thrill: He is the Life, the Truth, the right. He con - quered sin's pow'r and, here in this hour, He wants to fill us with His rest. You're in the right place; now, look in the face of Je - sus Christ, your Source of

C

A7

G

E7

Way; So, strike up the band, let's sing and clap our hands: we're gon - na' love; So, let's lift our gaze, and fill this house with praise: we have a grace: He makes the lame to walk, He makes the dumb to talk and He will

Refrain

Am7 D7 G C7

cel - e - brate, to - day! God is gon - na' meet you at the guest here from a - bove.
 fill your heart with praise.

D7 G C7

point of your need. If you are in bond - age, get your

C+7 A7 D7

danc - ing shoes on; for, you are gon - na' be freed. The King of glo - ry is a com - ing down, and He turns trou - bled lives a - round. He is work - ing for our good; so, let's cel - e - brate!

G C7

A7 G C/G D7 G