

Moving to a Mansion

Words and Music by ROBERT W. MUNCIE

1. I've been liv - ing in this world for a few short years; But, I've
2. All my trou - bles and my tri - als will be left to be - hind true, And the 3. It may sound like some big sto - ry, too good to be true, Like a found with all its joys, it's still a vale of tears. If bur - dens I have car - ried will all be re - signed, My joke some - one is play - ing just to trou - ble you; But, this is all there is, it's just a big rat race; But, when lone - li - ness and wan - d'ring will be the in the past: As I Je - sus Christ Him - self be - came the Liv - ing Way And, by this life is all o - ver, there's a bet - ter place. step on heav - en's shore, I will be home at last.

faith in Him, some - day, I will be home to stay.
