

Sailing In God's Will

Words and Music
ROBERT W. MUNCIE

E^b7 A^b D^b E^b7 A^b

1. I re- mem-ber well when I set sail on the sea of God's great grace;
2. The first thing I did was cut the lines of my car- nal, self- willed pride;

D^b E^b7 A^b

I launched in- to the har- bor and found it was a bless- ed place;
And hoist- ed up the sail of faith, say- ing, "Je- sus, You can guide."

D^b A^b E^b7 A^b

I set- tled back to rest a- while: but, wa- kened from my sleep,
The rush- ing, might- y wind of God both filled and sat- is- fied;

D^b A^b D^b A^b E^b7 A^b

God said, "My grace is great- er still: why not launch in- to the deep."
I'm sail- ing where the Spir- it leads 'til I reach the oth- er side.

CHORUS

I've cut loose all the shore-lines and sur-rendered to God's will;

With my sails full of the Spir-it I am sail-ing deep-er still;

I am His, I know, I'm in His con-trol; so let the winds of the Spir-it blow, It's a joy to know I'm sail-ing in the cen-ter of God's will.
