

Take the Son

Words and Music by ROBERT W. MUNCIE

A7 D Bm G D A7

1. Did you ev - er stop to pon - der what's the pur - pose of a
2. You may wan - der through your life - time, act - ing as you can think you
3. God has giv - en us a bless - ing in that we can know, to -

D A7 D Bm G D A7

man? If there is a High - er Be - ing, are you liv - ing by His should, Try to be a de - cent per - son: folks may think of you as day, We have life, God's life e - ter - nal; for, His Son has made a plan? You will, some - day, be brought be - fore Him when the Judg - ment Day has good; But, if Je - sus is not your Sa - vior, if you don't know heav - en's way: Through His death and His res - ur - rec - tion, ev - 'ry mo - ment, we will come. You can be pre - pared to meet Him through the work of Christ his Son.

D G D G

A7 D Bm G D A7 D

home, You are head - ed for dis - as - ter when you stand be - fore God's throne.
be Liv - ing on - ly for God's glo - ry till His bless - ed face we see.

Refrain

G D

There's a great day of judgment coming: We will

G A7 D

an - swer for what we've done. Take the Son to be your Lord and

Bm G D A7 D A7

Sa - vior and hear Him say, "Child, wel - come home!" Take the

D Bm G

Son to be your Lord and Sa - vior and hear Him,

D A7 D D A7 D

1 & 2 3

say, "Child, wel - come home!" say, "Child, wel - come home!"