

The Man in the Middle

Words and Music by ROBERT W. MUNCIE

E \flat A \flat E \flat E \flat 7

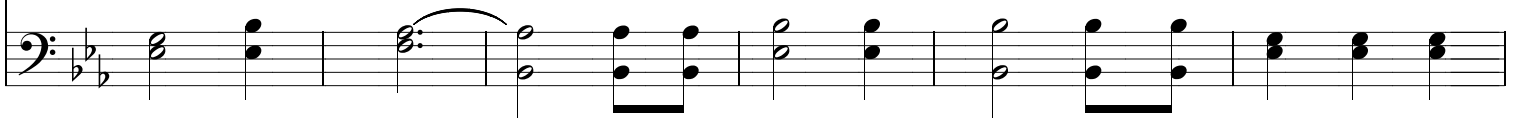

1. Two men died at the Sa - vior's side As he hung on
2. Both had sinned and their lives would end As they lived, in
3. At each side, they were cru - ci - fied As the price they

E \flat Fm7 E \flat 7 E \flat E \flat 7 E \flat E \flat 7 E \flat E \flat 7 E \flat 7

Cal - va - ry. On a cross of shame, they died for their own e - vil ways; But, one man be - lieved and, by God's grace, re - had to pay For the wrong they'd done; but, God's own Pre - cious

A \flat E \flat E \flat 7 E \flat blame; But, the Man in the mid - dle died for me.

ceived An e - ter - ni - ty of un - end - ing days.
Son Shed His Blood all for our sins that day.

CHORUS

The man in the mid - dle is the joy of my soul, The man in the mid - dle makes my life whole For their own sins, two men died on a tree; But, the Man in the mid - dle, He died for me.