

The Tomb Is Empty, Our Lord's Alive

Words and Music by ROBERT W. MUNCIE

E^b7 A^b E^b7 A^b

1. Sin cru - ci - fied our Lord up - on a
2. Life's cir - cum - stanc - es some - times look so
3. When life's big bur - dens be - come hard to

D^b E^b7

tree, He gave His life there for you and drear And we all are tempt - ed to doubt and bear, When we all you see leads you to de -

A^b E^b7 A^b E^b7 A^b me. Sa - tan had his day, for he thought Christ was fear; But, the eyes of faith can see, be - yond the spair, Take a look at Je - sus' grave: it's o - pen

D^b E^b7 A^b

done; But, sin's de - feat - ed: our Sa - vior won.
grave, A liv - ing Lord emp - ty, has pow'r to save.
wide. The tomb is emp - ty, our Lord's a - live.

The tomb is empty, our Lord's a - live, The stone is rolled back, we've seen in - side. He lives for - ev - er and, in our hearts, He a - bides. The tomb is empty, our Lord's a - live.