

The Wall Is Broken Down

Words and Music by ROBERT W. MUNCIE

G7 C F C G7 C F

1. Like a wall of bricks and mortar was the sin which had me bound: Too
2. Now I walk in sweet communion with the blessed King of kings And,
3. There's no sin too big, no life too gone to be outside the reach Of high to climb, too deep and wide to ever get a - round. It was a in His love, my life and a - bides and the my heart glad - ly sings. To think that Him who made the sac - ri - fice the wall of sin to breach. If you are

C G7

C F C G7 C C7 F

life of sep - a - ra - tion from a ho - ly God a - bove; But, God's one so lost could be found and a - dopt - ed as God's Son day, Would be lost and sep - a - ra - ted from the love of God, to - day, He is on - ly Son broke through the wall and bathed me in His love.

C G7 C

more than I could to bring you back if I had not been arms the One.
reach - ing out to bring you back in - to His arms to stay.

Chorus

F C G7 C

There is no more sep - a - ra - tion be - tween my Lord and me: The wall of sin was bro - ken down and I have been set free. I'll

F C G7

C F C C7 F

love and serve and wor - ship God: at last real love I've found. A ho - ly God gave His own Son; the wall is bro - ken down.

C G7 C

1&2

G7 C F G7 C

3

wall is bro - ken down. The wall is bro - ken down.