1. Life is full of heart - aches, prob - lems and pains And
 2. He bore my all trans - gres - sions on Cal - v'ry's tree, He
 3. Pain we all en - coun - ter turns out for good When though we walk and with Je - sus, so much hurt still re - mains:

 suf - fered walk with He our died there to bring heal - ing to me;
 we walk with our Sa - vior and trust His cleans - ing Blood.

Sick - ness and sor - row are now part of this place; But, we'll
 When I take see my Je - sus, in that mo - ment I'll be end; Healed of I'll take my bur - dens, then, down to this life's end; Then, I'll leave it all be - hind us when we see our Sa - vior's face.

 ev - 'ry hurt and ill - ness, whole for all e - ter - ni - ty.
 give them all to Je - sus and I'll not see them a - gain.
