

When the Son Comes Down

Words and Music by ROBERT W. MUNCIE

D7 G G7

1. It was a sad, sad day when Je - sus went a - way; But,
2. Peo - ple have tried to make this world a per - fect place; But,

C G D7 G

He said, "I will come a - gain," And we keep our eye on the east - ern sky For the sin and sor - row still a - bound. If you look to man for a sav - ing hand, You'll con -

A7 D7 G

One who saved us from our sin. In like man - ner as He left, He will clude sal - va - tion can't be found: This old world is scarred by sin and we'll come a - gain some day: He will take us to that heav - en - ly place And nev - er see a - gain Par - a - dise this side of e - ter - ni - ty; But,

C A7

C G E7 A7 D7 G

I get all ex - cit - ed just think - ing of the day I shall look up - on my Sa - vior's face.
I look for the day our Lord will take us a - way To a land where with Him we shall be.

Chorus

D7 G G7 C

When the Son comes down, the Church is go - ing up: We are gon - na' leave here with a shout. We will cease our earth - ly wan - der - ing, We will take a brand new route. We're gon - na' fly a - way to a brand new day Where

G A7

D7 G

B7 Em Em7/G C

we'll live for the ag - es to come: When the Son comes down, the Church is

G E7 A7 D7 G

go - ing up, Go - ing to our heav - en - ly Home.
