

Grandpa and a Farmall and an Old Tree Stump

Words and Music by ROBERT W. MUNCIE

V1, 2, 3, 4, Chorus, V5, Chorus

C7 F F7 B \flat

1. Though Grand - pa nev - er seemed to be the kind who went to church, One
 2. The preach - er gave an al - tar call and Grand - pa got the shakes. Back
 3. That af - ter - noon, we drove the Farm - all trac - tor to the woods And,
 4. He stum - bled to the stump and fell down on his bend - ed knees. I'd 5. And from that time un - til he died, my Grand - pa went to church And

F C7

sum - mer day when I was six years old, He then, I could - n't fig - ure out just why; But, proud - ly, I sat fig up on Grand - pa's knee Till nev - er seen him weep that way be - fore. First, folks could tell he was a dif - f'rent man. It

F B \flat packed us in the car and we all went to church that day And he held to the pew un - til the preach - er said, "A - men." I we came to an old stump in the mid - dle of the field. He I thought Grand - pa was - n't well; but, soon I knew for sure, Grand - all be - gan at that old stump where He knelt down to pray: While

F C7 F

found a place to sit on the back row.
 thought I saw trac - tor shut off, tear - drop in his eye.
 shut the trac - tor shut off, be - gan to weep.
 pa was real - ly talk - ing to the Lord.
 I sat there, Grand - pa was born a - gain.

Refrain

While I sat on the Farm - all, Grand - pa knelt to pray: At an old stump in the past - ure, Je - sus washed his sins a - way. And when I think of my child - hood days, my mind will oft - en jump To Grand - pa and a Farm - all and an old tree stump.